

Scientific Machine Learning (SciML)

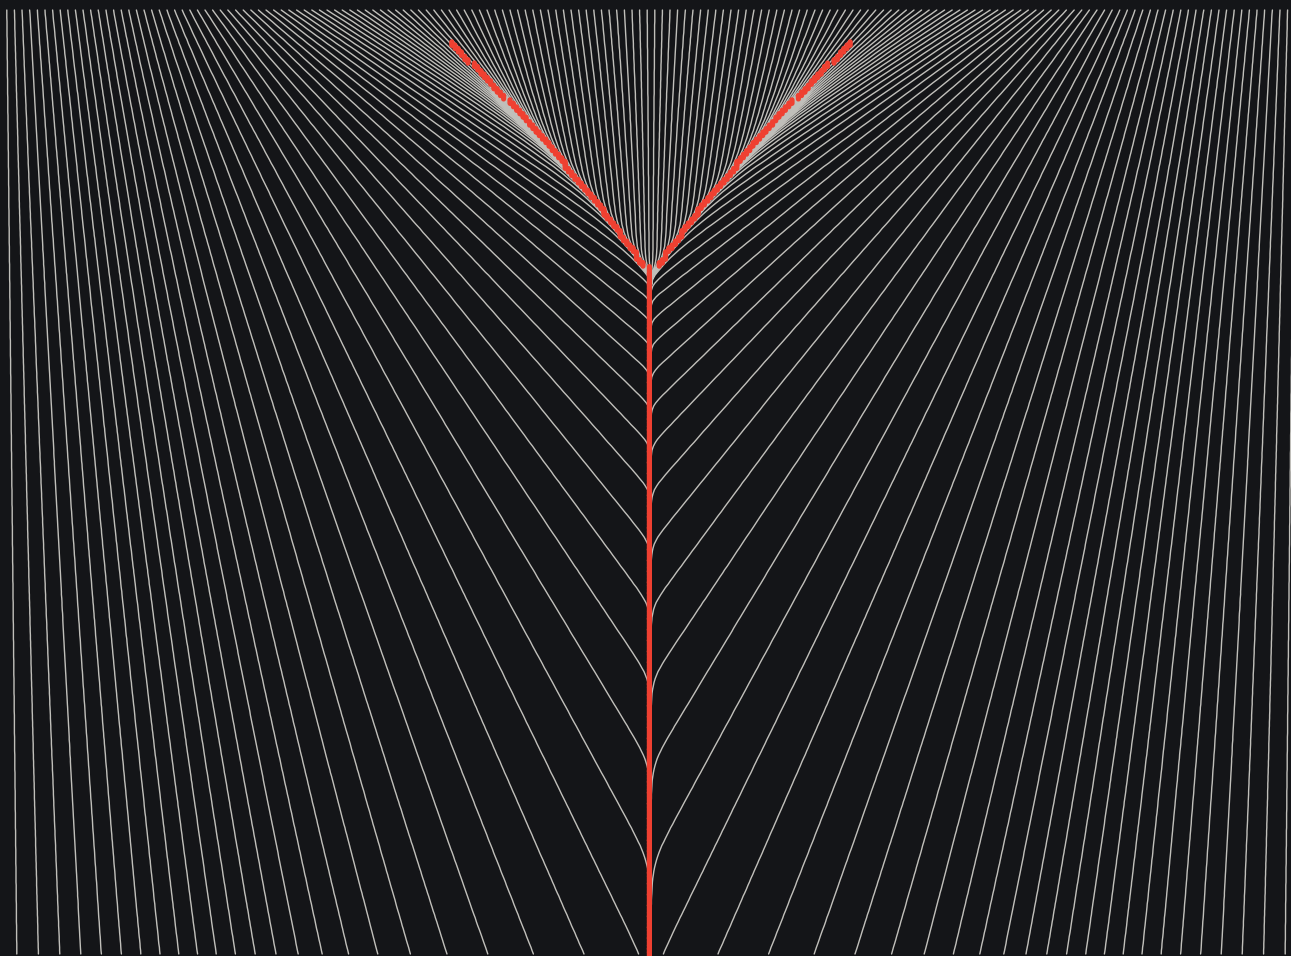

FIG. 0 Burgers' equation, $u_t + u \cdot u_x = (0.01/\pi) \cdot u_{xx}$ – the classic benchmark for physics-informed networks – solved in this page by finite volumes (400 cells, 984 time steps). Lines: 170 fluid particles carried by the flow, time running down; red: shocks, where they collide.